FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

WINNETT NAMED EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH

CHARLESTON, IL--Angela Winnett of Charleston has been named Eastern Illinois University's "Employee of the Month."

A clerical worker in Eastern's art department since 1989, Winnett was selected from more than 800 Eastern civil service employees by the university's Civil Service Employee Recognition Committee.

She is the transcribing secretary for the department and assists the department chairman. Winnett also handles the departmental budget and supervises student employees.

As to her selection, Winnett said, "I was extremely surprised and honored. I would like to accept this award, though, in honor of my former colleague Aleta Donley, who made my job so much easier before she left."

Glenn Hild, acting art department chair, said, "Angela deserves the award because she runs the office in an excellent manner. She keeps the budget basically intact for us."

Winnett and her husband, Randy, a plumber for Advanced Building Systems in Charleston, have two children, Andrew and
